Company history/background

This fashion store has been a household name in the region for over 30 years and has built a strong local reputation. The business is operated as a private limited company and is fully operational with a permanent team of part-time employees and active involvement from the current owners. A loyal customer base has been built up through its long presence at the same location.

The store offers a varied assortment of women's fashion, with a mix of well-known brands and current collections. Customers can count on personal attention and advice from an experienced sales team. The store is open 7 days a week and has its own social media channel, through which customers are also reached online.

Unique selling points

The distinguishing features of this company lie in the personal approach, the broad and up-to-date portfolio of brands, and the excellent location on a popular shopping street. The store has a loyal, affluent clientele and benefits from a high flow of passers-by. Due to its long history and local reputation, there is a strong bond with the target group. Furthermore, there is growth potential through the further expansion of online activities and customer loyalty.

Other

The business is ideally suited for an entrepreneur who wants to be actively involved on the shop floor and has an affinity for fashion and a personal approach to customer service. A successor can build upon the existing formula and team, with room for their own personal touches and further growth. The store is attractive to both newcomers and experienced entrepreneurs looking to expand within the fashion industry.
