Company history/background

The company is a regional administration office offering a broad range of services to entrepreneurs in the SME sector. It primarily serves SME enterprises, but also self-employed professionals in various sectors. The services are structural in nature and are based on long-term client relationships (currently around 250 clients).

The firm combines administrative, tax, and advisory services within a single office. In doing so, it unburdens clients in multiple areas. The firm has built a stable position as an accessible and reliable office. The target group consists of entrepreneurs who require structural administrative support and practical financial advice. In addition to the entrepreneur, four employees are employed who function independently.
