Located in the heart of the Southeast Netherlands, this distinctive supermarket/fresh market specializes in Mediterranean and Asian cuisine. With an artisanal butcher shop and a wide, carefully curated assortment, this establishment offers everything one would expect from a high-quality ethnic supermarket.

The strength of this fresh food market lies in the combination of consistent quality, a unique and versatile range, competitive pricing, and the ability to respond quickly to trends and luxury products. This has led to a loyal and extensive customer base, originating from a catchment area of no less than 35 to 40 kilometers.

The company is situated in an excellent visible location, with optimal accessibility, in a modern leased property within a lively shopping centre — a solid foundation for further growth.

Other

Financially, the organization shows strong results: in 2025, a turnover of €4.5 million was realized with an EBITDA of €675,000.

Due to emigration plans, the current owner is seeking a driven MBI candidate or strategic partner willing to continue and further expand this successful formula. A careful and warm handover is a matter of course.

Are you looking for a distinctive company with proven success, growth potential, and a strong market position? Then this is a unique opportunity.
