Company history/background

Ambitious tax specialist in the Eindhoven/Tilburg region with a solid practice and an annual turnover of approximately €200,000 is seeking to join a larger accounting or tax advisory firm with the intention of eventually becoming a partner .

This tax specialist advises entrepreneurs and private individuals on tax matters and helps them structure their tax position optimally and correctly. He or she focuses on strategic tax advice, guiding business structures, assessing tax risks, and optimizing the tax burden within applicable laws and regulations. Additionally, this tax specialist assists with the preparation and review of tax returns, maintains contact with the Tax and Customs Administration, and guides clients during audits or disputes. The goal is to help clients make financially and fiscally responsible decisions and to unburden them of tax-related concerns.

Unique selling points

The loyal client portfolio demonstrates the value of personal contact. For several years, this tax specialist has been able to count on clients who want more, and for this reason, he seeks collaboration. There are also other parties who are eager to make use of the services.

Other

We are looking for a medium-sized firm that is interested in expanding client base, revenue, and profit, and is also open to the addition of a partner.
