Company history/background

The company is a technically specialized production company active at the intersection of digital printing, industrial processing, and custom production for business clients. The company prints on a wide variety of materials. The company is based in the Netherlands and primarily serves clients in the Netherlands, supplemented by a limited international client base. The company employs approximately 6-10 FTEs.

The company distinguishes itself through the combination of in-house production, flexibility in print runs, and the integration of multiple processing steps within a single process.
