Company history/background

The company is fundamentally sound and has an understandable product. Quality, a distinct identity, and personal attention are important pillars and distinguishing values for the company. A family business is certainly a possibility. Willing to collaborate with the existing shareholder for several years to take the enterprise further.

Active in his own business for a long time. Seeking a new challenge after a successful takeover. Honest, energetic, highly driven, hardworking, and positive. Acts informally but is results-oriented. Values reliability highly. Ambitious and eager to use his capabilities to build a successful company. An entrepreneur with a distinct, recognizable identity. Does not do this without a dedicated team.

Unique selling points

- Change, professionalization, and growth of people and organization.

- Generalist with a focus on results in the broadest sense of the word. Capable of solving problems and bringing structure. No-nonsense and proactive.
- Team player who, with great enthusiasm and drive, wants to take the company to greater heights together with a team of dedicated employees.
