Company history/background

The company is located in the Northern Netherlands, in the center of a touristically attractive, historic city. The business operates from a monumental owner-occupied building. After twenty-five years of dedicatedly building the business, the entrepreneurs wish to make room for a new phase in their lives, outside the hospitality industry.

The company operates a hospitality business comprising a hotel, café, and restaurant. The company has a permanent team and serves both private and business clients, including travel agencies, companies, and venue renters.

Unique selling points

The company has built a strong regional reputation over more than twenty years and is known as reliable, flexible, and hospitable. Thanks to stable operations, low staff turnover, and steady revenue growth, the buyer is acquiring a healthy and well-performing business with ample room for further growth.
