Company history/background

The company was founded in 1992. The transaction concerns a share transaction.

A strategic partner can further accelerate the desired further growth, for which operations, accommodation and assets have been prepared in recent years.

This company is of interest to strategic buyers/investors/companies.

This is a relatively "small" and flexible organisation with highly skilled staff.

The company's activities concern a full-service rental and sales company in professional audio, light and (LED) displays for various events and permanent installations.

Unique selling points

The company distinguishes itself by being a reliable and professional partner for its clients. Informal and personal customer contact is one of its most important hallmarks.

Excellent reputation and brand recognition through high quality, reliable delivery, and service. High level of customer satisfaction and long-term relationships.

Other

The entrepreneur wants to transfer the company with a "warm transfer".
