Company history/background

Have you always dreamed of your own delicatessen shop in a lively neighborhood location with a fixed and loyal customer base? This is your chance!

The store in Leiden Kopermolen, part of a well-known franchise formula, is becoming available for acquisition. Located in the Kopermolen shopping center in the Merenwijk district, this store is a trusted address for daily groceries and delicious specialties. The store attracts a broad clientele: from families and seniors to local workers who enjoy stopping by for their favorite cheese, nuts, olives, tapas, wines, dairy products, and more.

Unique selling points

Why this opportunity is so special:

- Strong neighborhood location: Situated in a well-visited shopping center with a stable stream of regular customers.
- Loyal customer base: Many returning local residents who choose quality and personal service.
- Growth opportunities: Expansion of the regular customer base, collaboration with local hospitality and the B2B market.

Other

With the support of the proven franchise formula, you receive all the guidance to successfully continue your store and grow it further.
