Company history/background

On offer is a renowned company specializing in the rental of modernly equipped, customizable photo studios for photography, film, and video productions.

The company boasts a strong market position, a recognizable brand, and a stable client base consisting of both creative professionals and renowned companies. The studios are stylishly furnished and technically adapted to current requirements. Reservations are processed efficiently and with minimal overhead through a fully automated booking system.

The company is located in an easily accessible area of Amsterdam, spread across several rental properties, and operates high-quality spaces that are versatile, including for corporate events. The organization consists of one full-time employee and a flexible workforce of experienced freelancers.
