Company history/background

This unique pizzeria was founded with the goal of bringing authentic Roman pizza to the Netherlands. The concept focuses on high-quality ingredients, artisanal preparation, and a strong brand identity.

Since opening, the company has built a loyal customer base and developed a strong position in the local hospitality market. The pizzeria is known for its quality, recognizable branding, and modern appearance.

The company is fully operational and offers a solid foundation for a new owner who wishes to continue the current success or expand further.

The company operates a pizzeria specializing in Roman pizza (pizza al taglio and pizza romana). The activities consist of:

- Sale of high-quality pizza and Italian specialties
- Pickup and delivery
- Service in the restaurant
- Strong online presence and marketing
- Collaborations with delivery platforms

The company operates with an efficient concept and clear processes, making the business relatively easy to acquire and operate.

Unique selling points

What makes this company unique:

- Authentic Roman pizza concept that sets itself apart from traditional pizzerias
- Strong branding and recognizable identity
- Loyal customer base and good online reviews
- Efficient kitchen and streamlined operational processes
- Opportunity for further growth, for example through extended opening hours, catering, or multiple locations

Moreover, the concept has the potential to be further developed as a brand or franchise.

Other

The company is interesting for:

- Entrepreneurs who want to start a hospitality business with a proven concept
- Hospitality entrepreneurs who want to expand their portfolio
- Investors who want to further grow a strong brand

Hospitality experience is an advantage, but with the right guidance, the concept is also suitable for a motivated entrepreneur who wants to run a successful pizzeria.
