Company history/background

This branch is being offered for takeover by the owner due to personal circumstances. It concerns a profitable branch with significant potential for further expansion. The branch is very favorably located: a prominent location on the popular Traaij in the center of Driebergen.

The current potential is not yet being fully utilized, which actually offers interesting growth opportunities.

With targeted local marketing, a powerful delivery network, and the support of a proven success formula, there is ample room to significantly expand the success.

The establishment is affiliated with a franchise system. Since 1993, the system has developed into a market leader through continuous innovation and a focus on quality. The system distinguishes itself by:

- The unique “It’s the Dough!” recipe that keeps drawing customers
- Own production and distribution center for optimal quality and margins
- Advanced store automation
- Powerful marketing strategy for local growth
- A network of more than 300 successful entrepreneurs

Unique selling points

Why is this a unique entrepreneurial opportunity?

Thanks to the well-trained team, you are stepping onto a moving train.

The branch is practically new.

With a relatively modest investment of €30,000, you have your own business.

Full-service support from the franchisor, yet room for your own ideas.

Great untapped potential: including the business market and delivery
