Company history/background

The company was started by the entrepreneur himself. Based on the philosophy of custom-designed kitchens, the entrepreneur has built a strong market position.

A complete range of designer kitchens. Excellent expert advice and extensive service. Additionally, there is a collaboration with interior design partners, enabling a total solution to be offered.

Unique selling points

Focus on a high-quality range. Specific advisory function regarding kitchen design and interior advice. In addition to the entrepreneur's presence, there is a good team of qualified employees. Collaboration with other providers in the home furnishings sector broadens the range and provides greater added value.

Other

The business is interesting for both a start-up entrepreneur and an entrepreneur who wants to expand with an additional branch.
