Company history/background

This fashion store is a fixture in the 'Boven 't Y' shopping center in Amsterdam-Noord. This store is one of the first to feature this concept and was opened by the Meulenkamp family more than 57 years ago. Entrepreneurs Harrie and Janet Meulenkamp have continued running his parents' store with love and passion for many years. Now they are going to enjoy a well-deserved retirement and are happy to pass the baton to a new enthusiastic entrepreneur.

The Buikslotermeerplein area will undergo significant changes in the coming years; there are plans to create more homes and green the surroundings, and the shopping center is evolving accordingly. Additionally, Amsterdam-Noord is a rapidly growing district, so with many new construction projects, the area is undergoing significant development.

The store is situated in a good location within the shopping center, opposite Hema and directly next to Rituals. The square on which the store is located is lively and regularly serves as the setting for various activities, which contributes to additional visitors and a pleasant atmosphere in the area. With 100 m² of usable floor space, the store offers sufficient room for a good presentation of the collections.

The store is more than a body fashion store! It is a space where you can be shamelessly yourself, where you are listened to and supported, so that you feel comfortable and more confident.
