Company history/background

Growth requires more than a strong practice. Growth requires a strong platform.

Your firm has built a solid position and is ready for the next step. However, further growth also brings new challenges: investing in people, technology, operations, and innovation.

We are looking for a firm that:

- is active in corporate and/or real estate law;
- generates a turnover of approximately €500,000 to €2 million;
- Has the ambition to grow further within a larger organization.

Our client wishes to grow through the acquisition of a law firm and offers the benefits of a professional organization, while you can continue to focus on your clients and legal expertise.

Unique selling points

You benefit from, among other things:

- professional support in the fields of HR, IT, marketing, and finance;
- access to a broader range of services and a larger business network;
- collaboration, technical consultation and knowledge sharing with experienced colleagues;
- active investments in innovation, including the application of AI within legal practice;
- space to continue building the growth of the organization together.
